Reference and Recommendation for
MILAN RAKIC
Aviation Resource Group

On every count Milan Rakic is a most rare & exemplary consultant in the fields of aircraft acquisition, sale, or modification management.

I am a CEO, Chairman and founder of 4 companies. I appreciate high achievers like Milan.

He directed our company flight department in search for a replacement aircraft, while re-marketing the existing one. His technical detail, social skills, and particularly his personal principles; are well beyond anybody else I have witnessed for over 30 years in this industry.

Not only do I recommend him without limitation or reservation,
I will never make another aircraft move without him.
